leadership training for all aspects of ministry

WHY HAVE YOUR LEADERS ATTEND EQUIP?

- + Why attend?
This is the premier Sunday School and leadership training conference in all of Texas. This is a day to invest into the people who minister in your church each week. Do not miss this amazing opportunity to have them learn best practices, new methods and the biblical theology needed to minister effectively in the local church.
- + Who should attend?
The conference is for anyone (both staff and lay leaders) who wants to make a difference through the local church. The day is filled with over 300 sessions, meaning there is a breakout for most any area of ministry.
- + First time?
We love first time guests to EQUIP. In fact, it is our hope to have more first time churches, teachers, leaders and servants than ever before.
- + How do I register?
Go to www.sbtexas.com/equip
- + Who is the conference sponsor?
The EQUIP conference is provided by the Southern Baptists of Texas Convention. It is made possible by the generous giving of churches through the Cooperative Program. The SBTC is a group of 2,700+ churches committed to reaching Texas and impacting the world with the gospel of Jesus Christ. You can learn more about who we are at www.sbtexas.com.

SESSION 1 (10:00 AM)

Kristen Morgan	Inclusive Learning Environment for Children with Special Needs Trying to find the best way to incorporate all children of various needs together can have its challenges. Explore different approaches and ideas to help learners be successful.
Carla Greenway	Communication with Children in a Wise Way Children will not hear wisdom when it is communicated unwisely. Learn how to speak wisely to the heart of a child by using words they understand, with tools and methods that are age appropriate and hearing grace spoken through your lips from your heart.
Peggy Osborne	Children: How Can We Teach Them to Stand? The world we live in is pulling our children into a culture that does not honor God. How can we be sure to deepen them in Christ in our classrooms and homes so that they can make a strong stand?
Kelly King	Sharing the Gospel with Children The gospel is the same for everyone, but sometimes it is challenging to communicate theological concepts in a kid-friendly way. Learn the essentials of communicating the gospel to kids on their level.
Karen Tayne	How Many Ways Can You Teach a Story? Explore a variety of ways you can teach a Bible story that will appeal to different learning styles and capture children's attention with goal of capturing their heart.
Shelly Harris	Bible Skills Games, Crafts and More Research tells us that reading the Bible is one of the key indicators of lifetime spiritual growth. Come join us as we look at games, crafts and other ideas to strengthen Bible skills for elementary age kids.
Curt Hale	More Than Motions: How to Engage the Heart and Mind of a Child in Worship In this session we will seek to understand what children really need in meaningful worship experiences and provide helpful tips to lead young hearts and minds more effectively.
Melita Thomas	Top Tips for Preschool Teachers Are you ready to be a "next-level" preschool teacher? Embracing a few simple strategies can make a huge difference in transforming a good teacher into a next-level teacher.
Grace Paick	How to Teach a Baby Dedication Class (Taught in Korean) This session proposes some essential contents and procedures for a baby dedication class.
June Lee	Ways Children Learn and Enjoy Learning (Taught in Korean) All children are made in the image of God, but each child is also unique and different in many ways. Explore ways children learn and enjoy learning.
Christine Yee	Alcanzando el Corazón de los Niños (Taught in Spanish) Esta conferencia ayudará a desarrollar y reafirmar lecciones bíblicas para maximizar el ministerio de niños.

Kristen Morgan has a master's degree in Special Education with 11 years of teaching and diagnostician experience. She has a passion for working with children and families with special needs children. Kristen has served in the preschool/children's ministry for over 12 years. She was a Minister to Special Needs at First Baptist Forney for four years and now serves as the Special Needs Consultant with SBTC.

Carla Greenway is a wife and minister who desires to share the good news of God's grace to others. She earned her Master of Arts in Christian Education degree in 2002 from Southwestern Seminary, where she met her future husband, Adam, who now serves as Southwestern Seminary's ninth president. Carla has been an interim children's minister and a certified trainer for preschool continuing education. She and her husband have two children, Wade and Caroline.

Peggy Osborne has been in the field of education for over 25 years. Peggy spent 14 years in the elementary classroom and later worked as an administrator in the Early Childhood Department of College Station ISD. She is now a consultant and co-founder of You Are My Treasure®—speaking at women's events, retreats and workshops for parents and educators. She is married to Chris, pastor at Central Baptist in College Station. She also serves as a women's regional representative for the SBTC.

Kelly King has served in preschool and children's ministry for 20 years and has written curriculum for both the SBTC and Lifeway. She has also taught children's ministry courses for both Southwestern and Gateway Seminaries.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM)

Kristen Morgan	Starting a Special Needs Ministry There is a great need for families with special needs children or adults to have a church home where they can feel the love of Christ and grow spiritually. This session will go over ways to start and implement a ministry within small or large church populations.
Carla Greenway	Preschool Communication in a Wise Way with Preschool Children Children will not hear wisdom when it is communicated unwisely. Learn how to speak wisely to the heart of a child by using words they understand, with tools and methods that are age appropriate and hearing grace spoken through your lips from your heart.
Peggy Osborne	Tantrums to Teachable: The Discipline Process We are seeing more and more tantrums in our classrooms. Why do children have tantrums? What can we do to help them learn the skills needed to express their emotions in acceptable ways?
Kelly King	Getting the Most of our Your Curriculum So many activities! So many options! Learn how to tailor your curriculum to student and classroom needs and get the most out of whatever curriculum line you are using.
Karen Tayne	Boys and Girls: How Different Can They Be? The difference in gender from brain activity to social needs is significant and can impact how a child responds to the classroom setting on a Sunday morning. Learn the strengths and challenges of both and how you can use that understanding to engage them.
Shelly Harris	I Can't Use That! Today's kids are complex. Allergies, physical disabilities, reading challenges and unique family situations enter your room each week. When it comes to teaching today's kids, being able to adapt activities to fit your situation is key. We will explore how to adapt activities and ideas to meet the needs of your kids each week.
Curt Hale	Re-Energizing Children's Worship Ministry Is your children's worship ministry dull and lifeless? Do kids groan when the music starts? We will learn together how to bring the joy back to making joyful noise!
Melita Thomas	Blueprint for Spiritual Development Each child comes to church with a unique spiritual background. Discover how the Levels of Biblical Learning® can help you meet each child wherever they are spiritually.
Grace Paick	How to Build a Strong Ministry Team (Taught in Korean) Beat the misconceptions about preschool volunteers and help develop a diverse and dedicated team.
June Lee	Building the Biblical Foundation for Children (Taught in Korean) Discover ways to build the biblical foundation for children to impact their entire lives. Children need to be immersed in the Word of God.
Christine Yee	Cómo Proveer un Ambiente Seguro para los Niños (Taught in Spanish) Esta conferencia equipará a los líderes de sus Iglesias con consejos prácticos y aplicables para establecer un fundamento apropiado y seguro para los niños.

Family Panel

11:30 AM-12:30 PM

The New "Normal" in Children's and Family Ministry in 2020

Panel: Bill Emeott, Caren Crow, Larry Dan Melton, Keri Meek
Hosted by: Lance Crowell & Karen Kennemur

Karen Tayne has served in preschool and children's ministry for over 20 years. She has a heart for ministering to families as they begin the journey of parenting and equipping them to be their child's primary spiritual influencer.

Shelly Harris has been serving in kids ministry for over twenty years. She is a graduate of Murray State University and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Shelly is a content editor for LifeWay Kids and teaches K-3rd grade girls at her church.

Curt Hale is a husband, father of four, and family pastor living in Arlington. For more than twenty years he has shared the message of Christ with children and adults by serving the local church, leading worship, facilitating workshops and equipping events. For the last five years Curt has served on the staff of Rush Creek Church where he can pursue his absolute passion in life—helping families engage in faith talks at home.

Melita Thomas serves as LifeWay's VBS and Kids Ministry Specialist. For the past 14 years she has also been an editor of LifeWay's VBS resources. Melita holds a masters degree in childhood ministry from Dallas Baptist University. A passionate advocate for Kids Ministry in the local church, Melita enjoys teaching kindergartners and preteens at Nashville First Baptist Church.

SESSION 3 (12:30 PM)

- Kristen Morgan Community Outreach for Special Needs Families
As a church, the mission field is a way to reach families and share the gospel. What better way than within your own community! Learn about ways your church can make the special needs families the mission within your community. This is a way to get involved with the families, provide support and another opportunity of inviting them to church.
- Carla Greenway Communicating with Parents in a Wise Way in Children's Ministry
Learn how to communicate heart-to-heart, head-to-head and helper-to-helper, with parents by expressing joy and grace. Parents love adults who love their children.
- Peggy Osborne Brain Based Basic Training
Brain science has really helped us to understand how children learn best. Do you want them to remember Bible stories? Memorize Scripture? Learn better social skills so that they can get along with others? Do you want them to learn what to do with their emotions? Join us as we learn some of the best strategies to accomplish these goals no matter what you are teaching!
- Kelly King Skills for Life
Learn how to equip, encourage and practice Bible skills with your learners of all levels while reinforcing what you are teaching week by week.
- Karen Tayne Engaging Families Beyond Sunday Mornings
Practical and creative ways to connect with families and build a relationship beyond Sunday morning pick-up and drop off.
- Shelly Harris Teaching the Hard Stuff
David and Bathsheba, Song of Solomon, Romans. God included them in his Word. They are important. But how do we teach difficult stories in an age appropriate way? This session will cover some key questions and guidelines to consider when teaching hard sections of the Bible to kids.
- Curt Hale NowGen Worship: Why Tomorrow is Too Late to Develop Worship Leaders
Right now in our Children and Student Ministries, leaders can be found who are gifted and available to serve. Learn why it's important to mentor these young talents in their craft and how to develop a passion for serving the local church.
- Melita Thomas [No] Jeopardy!
The answer: Safety and security issues presented in the style of a classic TV game show. The question: What is this session all about? Come play a game and discover strategies for creating a safe and secure teaching environment for children of all ages.
- Grace Paick Using Visual Aids Effectively in Preschool Ministry (Taught in Korean)
This session introduces some of the most effective visual aids resources for Bible teaching with preschoolers.
- June Lee Leading Children to Active Learning (Taught in Korean)
Explore the multiple ways children enjoy learning. Children learn better when they actively participate and enjoy the process of learning.

Grace Paick is a preschool pastor at Seoul Baptist Church of Houston. For over 24 years as children's and preschool leader she developed teaching materials, trained teachers and parents in passing down their faith to the next generation.

Christine Yee creció en Las Vegas, Nev. Actualmente está viviendo en Fort Worth, donde estudia para obtener su licenciatura en Humanidades y Estudios Bíblicos en el colegio de Southwestern Theological Seminary. Ella sirvió formalmente como instructora de la EBV para la Asociación Bautista del Sur de Nevada y ahora sirve como instructora de EBV para la Convención de los Bautistas del Sur de Texas (SBTC). Ella también sirve en su iglesia como maestra de escuela dominical. En su tiempo libre se puede encontrar disfrutando de la naturaleza o leyendo un buen libro.

June Lee has a master's degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and is working on her PhD in childhood. Her major interest areas are children's spirituality and biblical parenting. She has served as a teacher and director in the areas of childhood ministry, weekday education for preschool and kindergarten children, children's discipleship, afterschool program for elementary children, and biblical parenting education.

SESSION 4 (1:15 PM)

Kristen Morgan	Special Needs: Understanding and Guiding Behavior Having trouble with behaviors that are distracting or disruptive? Maybe some children who need more guidance to be successful but you don't know what to do. Learn some practical tips, ideas and discuss ways to keep children engaged and on task as they learn and worship.
Carla Greenway	Preschool Parental Communication in a Wise Way Learn how to communicate heart-to-heart, head-to-head and helper-to-helper with parents by expressing joy and grace. Parents love adults who love their children.
Peggy Osborne	Making Bible Stories Come Alive! We want them to remember the Bible times we present in our classrooms. How can we present Scripture in a way that children will retain what they have learned in our Life Groups? Join us as we suggest strategies that are brain based and lots of fun!
Kelly King	Game On! Kids of all ages like to have a little fun while they are learning. Use Bible games to introduce and reinforce learning while building confidence and camaraderie in your classroom.
Karen Tayne	Understanding Those You Serve As Millennials become the predominant generation of parents, it is helpful to understand them, what has shaped their beliefs, what they are looking for in a church and how you can best connect and equip them.
Shelly Harris	Who is Generation Z? The kids we teach have NEVER known a world without computers, cell phones and internet. Let's learn more about this generation and how we can connect them to God and his Word.
Curt Hale	What Makes a Great Kids' Worship Leader? What characteristics should you look for in potential worship leaders for your ministry? What skills should you be coaching your current leaders to develop? Learn the qualities your children need in ministry leaders to help them fully engage in worship.
Melita Thomas	How to Choose a VBS There are tons of VBS themes to choose from each summer ... and all of them look fun! So how in the world do you decide which one to do? Seven things to look for when selecting a VBS curriculum to help you make a wise, informed decision.
Grace Paick	Worship with Babies and Toddlers (Taught in Korean) Babies can worship God, too! This session will prepared preschool leaders and volunteers to help very young children to worship.

Leading your church to answer the question, "How much time with the youth group and how much time with the full church?"
- Johnny Derouen Strategizing Generation Z Students for Spiritual Awakening
The time is now! How bad do you want to see God move? What does a spiritual awakening look like in your youth group? How does one lead the youth group to meet God's conditions for a spiritual awakening?
- Matt Geddie Equipping College Students to Lead
Basic principles and tools for equipping your college students to lead.
- Shane Pruitt How to Advance the Gospel Through Social Media
Nearly half of the world's population is on social media. It is a Great Commission opportunity. Having Gen Z use media for God's glory.

Johnny Derouen served as a youth minister for 32 years in Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas. Completing his Ph.D in youth ministry, he taught at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary for 12 years. He currently is lead pastor at FBC, Muskogee, Oklahoma, teaching adjunctly at SWBTS.

Mitch Tidwell is the collegiate associate at the Southern Baptists of Texas Convention. His passion is to assist churches in advancing God's kingdom on college campuses in Texas. Before being saved and called to the ministry he owned and operated a restaurant in Fort Worth with his family. Mitch lives in Fort Worth with his wife Olivia.

Jared Musgrove serves as groups pastor for The Village Church in Flower Mound, Texas. He earned degrees from The University of Oklahoma, Southwestern Seminary and Southern Seminary. He is the proud husband to Jenny and father to Jordan and Joshua.

Matt Geddie serves as the college minister at Travis Avenue Baptist Church in Fort Worth and also works with the SBTC as a collegiate liaison. His desire is to see the church equip college students and young adults to impact their spheres of influence with the gospel.

Barry Ford serves as the minister to young married adults and men's outreach at First Baptist Dallas. Barry is passionate about family and marriage ministry and about creating creative and contagious environments to connect adults to the local church. He and his wife, Ellen, have been married for 19 years and are the proud parents of 13-year-old twins, Jake and Emma.

- Jeff Young Building a Winning Group Ministry
Creating a growth minded culture.
- Chris Shirley Teaching "New" Older Adults
Get rid of the lectern and move the piano out of the room! Teaching a new generation of older adults means breaking down traditional walls and keeping others intact. More importantly, it means understanding the lives and needs of a generation that never wanted to "grow old."
- Don Munton We're Stuck and We Can't Get Up
Remove roadblocks in your single adult ministry and learn how to hit the refresh button on a struggling ministry. To reach single adults well we have to get to the core of what we are really trying to see accomplished.
- Billy Barnes Fun Ideas for 55+
Things to do with 55+ that are fun and easy to do.

Jared Musgrove serves as Groups Pastor for The Village Church in Flower Mound, Texas. He earned degrees from The University of Oklahoma, Southwestern Seminary and Southern Seminary. He is the proud husband to Jenny and father to Jordan and Joshua.

Allan Taylor is the executive pastor of ministries at First Baptist Concord in Knoxville, Tennessee. Previously, he served as Director of Sunday School & Church Education Ministries at LifeWay. He has written The Six Core Values of Sunday School and Sunday School in HD. He and his wife, Linda, have been married 41 years and live in Knoxville, Tennessee. They have three children and three grandchildren.

Jack Terry is the former dean of Jack D. Terry School of Church and Family Ministries at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has also served as professor of foundations in Christian education and teaches an adult Sunday School for mature adults.

Don Munton has been working with single adults since the beginning of time. (16 years in parachurch ministry and over 20 years at Houston's First Baptist Church) He has been instrumental in helping single adults move from the sidelines to the front lines. He is passionate about discipleship and St. Louis Cardinals baseball. He and his wife Denise have three children.

Carter Shotwell has served 2nd Baptist in Hot Springs, Arkansas, Houston's First Baptist, and for the last 20 years as minister of education at LakePointe Baptist Church in Rockwall. He is known for his solid support of Sunday School and creative lesson writing.

Wes Black oversees all aspects of ministry with empty nesters, adults in the second half of life, and senior adults at Travis Avenue. This includes leading mature adults to know, follow, and share Jesus Christ. He holds a bachelor of music degree from Hardin-Simmons University, Master of Arts in Christian Education and Doctor of Philosophy degrees from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Jeff Young has served churches in Texas, Arkansas, and Virginia. He currently is the minister of education at Prestonwood Baptist Church in Plano. Jeff is known for his dedication to helping adult teachers to all they can be in Christ.

Billy Barnes is the senior adult associate in the SBTC church ministries department. He is available to meet and consult with churches who need help with their senior adult ministry. Billy has been married to Judy for 46 years, they have two children and four grandchildren. Billy and Judy serve at the Senior Adult Ministry at his local church, FBC New Braunfels.

Chris Shirley serves as associate dean and professor of educational ministries at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, where he teaches discipleship and family ministry courses.

SESSION 1 (10:00 AM)

- Rick Howerton The Sermon-Based Bible Study Meeting
 Sermon-based Bible studies are the most easily led and simple format of any group experience. In fact, many churches utilizing this format call them sermon-based discussions rather than calling them sermon-based Bible studies. This due to the fact that sermon-based Bible studies are truly discussion oriented and a simple format.
- Jared Musgrove What Can We Really Promise in a Small Group?
 Get to the gold of spiritual growth together. Church staff, group leaders and members gain tools to successfully navigate varied expectations. People come to small group environments with overwhelming and complex expectations.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM)

- Rick Howerton Biblical, Relevant, Transformational Small Groups
 Too often small groups are based on group dynamics and practices that are more psychological than theological. This session will unearth what a truly biblical small group looks like and lives like. Biblical and relevant are not at odds. In fact, when the two come together lives are transformed!

SESSION 3 (12:30 PM)

- John Bernard How to Recruit People to Serve in the First Impression Ministry
Where do you find the people? What kind of people do you look for? What are the qualifications?
- Mike Gurley Medical Ministry
Harvey Letcher Medical ministry will expand on the need for an organized, well equipped team of professionals to be prepared to respond to a medical emergency or mass casualty event. As an example, in a cardiac event, minutes matter and could be the difference in a person surviving.

SESSION 4 (1:15 PM)

- John Bernard How to Train Your First Impression Team and Have Quality Control
What kind of training is needed? When do you do training? How do you ensure that your people are doing a great job?
- Mike Gurley First Impressions
Harvey Letcher First impressions expands the role of the ushers, greeters and parking ministry (if present) to become “rings of protection” and advance/expand the “eyes and ears” component of church security preparedness.

John Bernard connects visitors and new members to Sunday School, membership, and ministry. When he's not spending time with his wife, Cheryl, their three daughters, or six grandchildren, John is likely officiating a local sports event or relaxing on a beach somewhere.

Harvey Letcher is on staff of a rapidly growing DFW mega church and assists in recruiting and training key personnel. Two years ago, my partner and I established Teamwork's Consulting, Inc. (TCI), for the purpose of assisting churches, private Christian schools and selected corporations with their security needs.

Mike Gurley works for Critical Incident Management (security) Plan that aides in development, training and application for schools, churches and corporations. This venture is based on a broad spectrum of experience in law enforcement, major event logistics, dignitary protection and strategic security planning. Through threat assessment and plan development, workable solutions can be developed to address the needs of your organization.

Barry Ford serves as the minister to young married adults and men's outreach at First Baptist Dallas. Barry is passionate about family and marriage ministry and about creating creative and contagious environments to connect adults to the local church. He and his wife, Ellen, have been married for 19 years and are the proud parents of 13-year-old twins, Jake and Emma.

SESSION 4 (1:15 PM)

- Josh Proctor Courageous/Compassionate Leadership
Effectively confront idolatry in the lives of your people. Care for them as they learn how to pursue the freedom that Christ provides.
- Eric Reed A Biblical Picture of Masculinity in an Age with Gender Confusion
Help leaders engage the men in your church and community with a biblical picture of manhood in a culture with increasingly fluid gender roles.
- Spencer Plumlee The Secret Ingredient(s) for a Thriving Men's Ministry
Challenge men by helping them become disciples that eventually make disciples. Change your men and you change the church.

Josh Proctor is the president of Caleb Micah Ministries (calebmichah.org), and his ministry is committed to helping men, students, and families discover the truth of the gospel so they can walk in freedom from the chains of idolatry. Previously, Josh was a pastor of a church plant, a student pastor and on staff with Campus Crusade for Christ, now "CRU". Josh is married to Kelly, and they have eight incredible children.

Spencer Plumlee serves as the senior pastor of First Baptist Church Mansfield, Texas. He has a Master of Divinity and Ph.D from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He and his wife Shelley have three beautiful children - Seth, Noah and Paige. Spencer's greatest joy is seeing disciples multiplying for the glory of God.

Eric Reed serves as the minister to men and assistant to the minister of education at Houston's First Baptist Church. He is passionate about calling men into biblical friendship, discipleship and leveraging their gifts and abilities to advance God's kingdom in the hearts, minds and souls of people everywhere. He is married to Stacie and they have four kids, Emma, Luke, Kate and Lily.

SESSION 1 (10:00 AM)

- Terri Stovall Women in Leadership: Leading Through Change as a Second Chair Leader
 Many women in leadership often serve as a second chair leader where they are a women of influence, but are not serving as a top level leader. Serving as a second chair leader has its challenges and its blessings. The hardest times of leading as a second chair come when the organization is going through change and transition (even positive change) or when you are in the middle of a crisis. This session will give practical insight from biblical principles to steward that leadership seat well so you flourish where God has placed you.
- Simone Monroe The Importance of Culture in Developing Leaders
 Implement a ministry culture that drives transformation. The culture we develop with our leaders will determine the direction of the ministry. Creating a culture for developing leaders, and assisting in their maturity, is quite different from the “old school” concept of gathering leaders to do a job.
- Carrie Bond Lead Like a Servant
 Learn how to walk as a servant leader and discover the impact it will have on you and others. Leadership is today’s world often looks completely different than the “upside-down” model of leadership that Jesus demonstrated.
- Deborah Smith The Single Lady: Finding Contentment in a Lonely World
 Explore the challenges single women face with loneliness and discontentment and learn how to cultivate a culture of contentment. Our culture is saturated with finding love, yet people are lonelier than ever. For the single lady, the weight of this loneliness can seem unbearable at times. The question, “Will this season last forever?” is her constant companion.
- Shari Edwards Faithful Builders: Stewarding Our Leadership Calling
 Learn how to step fully into our calling as women’s ministry leaders and faithfully steward our gifts as we seek to build up of the body of Christ. Women who serve in the church often fail to see themselves as leaders. If we serve in a position of influence over other people for direction and decision, then we are leaders.
- Nancy Turner Tightening the Marriage Knot
 Learn how to strengthen our marriages by tightening the marriage knot.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM)

- Terri Stovall What’s a Woman to Do? The Bible, Women & the Church
 Gain clarity to understand who we are as women, what are we supposed to do for the kingdom and how are we supposed to serve well using the gifts God has given us. We are strong, saved, gifted and called women who want to serve God and the church well.
- Simone Monroe Understanding Generational Differences & Cultural Identity
 Learn the characteristics of each generation and the value of relating to each generation and culture. Move beyond this impasse of cultural or generational differences to value one another instead of trying to change one another. One of today’s biggest challenges in ministry is working together across generational and cultural lines. Understand why they do the things they do!
- Carrie Bond Real Women: The Nitty-Gritty of Biblical Womanhood
 Explore methods to undo the ones that have wormed their way into your daily thoughts and habits. The world offers so many other interpretations of womanhood. God’s design for a real woman is nothing less than spectacular!
- Deborah Smith The Importance of a Biblical Worldview: #fightinglies
 Align your worldview to Scripture and implement it in your everyday life. Women are constantly being pelted with expectations, lies from our culture, movements, campaigns on social media and the list goes on and on. But how do we know what is true and what is false? How do we fight these battles?
- Shari Edwards Clarify in Ministry: Finding Courage to Regroup, Reset and Refocus
 The year 2020 has been a year of crisis, confusion and chaos. The global pandemic of COVID-19 introduced many new challenges to local church ministry due to quarantine, isolation and social distancing measures. Yet it also provides the perfect opportunity to adapt, set new direction, and cast a God-size vision for ministry. In this session Owe will take steps to view our ministry with fresh eyes and move forward in a more effective and strategic way.
- Nancy Turner A Woman of Godly Influence
 Are you a woman of godly influence? Examine our best opportunities to impact others for the kingdom.

LUNCH PANEL

Panel: Sandra Peoples, Ali Shaw & Melody Schmidt
 Hosted by Laura Taylor

Speaker/Room Title/Description

SESSION 3 (12:30 PM)

- Terri Stovall Why Women's Ministry is Still Important
Women are vital to the church in fulfilling it's ministry. There is an interdependence on Women's ministry and other areas of ministry. We need spiritually healthy women to carry out those servant rolls.
- Simone Monroe 2020 Vision: Improving Vision by Using the Lens of an Inner Circle
Learn to develop and effectively cast vision for your team using the clarity of insight provided by an inner circle of leaders. Vision determines the direction of a team. This makes the leader's ability to cast vision for the team of the utmost importance.
- Carrie Bond In the Waiting Room
Decide what to do—and not to do—while you're waiting will give you encouragement and joy. No one likes to wait in the check-out line, at the doctor's office or for God's answer. Yet waiting is an integral part of how God teaches and grows us.
- Laura Taylor Crisis, Conflict & Care
Identify the skills to minister, comfort, counsel and resolve conflict when faced with crisis and conflict. Women are hurting and in crisis all around us; they don't know how to get along with others or be helpful. As women in leadership we often are approached with the problems, personal struggles, conflicts and pain of others.
- Shari Edwards Cultivating the Next Generation
Many young women today do not identify with the women's ministry model they witnessed among their mothers' generation. In addition, they are being influenced by a culture that influences them to be strong women in their own power instead of in Christ alone. How can we communicate to the young women coming behind us that they are needed and valued in the church? We must take intentional steps to bridge the gap between the generations and strengthen the leadership bonds among women of all ages. In this session we will learn strategic methods and creative ways to effectively develop biblical leadership qualities in the next generation of women's ministry leaders.
- Nancy Turner Leading Women in a Multi-Cultural World
Join us as we take a look at the importance of recognizing the value and dignity of every woman we are called to lead.

SESSION 4 (1:15 PM)

- Terri Stovall Leading Others with Style
Develop a better understanding of your leadership style and how to adapt your style to more effectively lead others. Leadership involves both an art and a science.
- Simone Monroe Discovering Your Spiritual DNA: Exploring the Importance of Giftedness
Develop an understanding of how, where and when to utilize your gifts based on Scripture. Do you often feel God has a specific purpose for you, but you have no idea where to start?
- Carrie Bond Staying Strong in the Battle
Understand God's battle strategy to help you be armed and walk in truth in the midst of the battle. The battles you face in life are real and often occur without warning. Now is the time to suit up!
- Laura Taylor Rethinking Women's Ministry After Covid19
Practical ways to identify the change in the landscape of Women's ministry and tools to think ahead to meet the challenge after Covid19. Help in planning for a flourishing, vibrant women's ministry long-term
- Shari Edwards Leading Well in the Local Church
Study characteristics of key women in Scripture as we learn how to be women who lead with faithfulness, courage and wisdom. Learn how to work with men, lead teams that resist change and deal with conflict.
- Nancy Turner Remaining Faithful During Challenging Times
This session will discuss biblical leaders who faced challenging times yet remained faithful.

SESSION 1 (10:00 AM)

Craig Etheredge What is a Disciple?

A critical step in obeying Jesus' command to "make disciples" is to know what we are to make. Craig will clarify a term that is often unclear and help define a true disciple of Jesus Christ.

John Richardson Setting Up Your Disciple-Making-Meeting

"I want to make disciples, but I don't know what to do" is a common phrase for many believers. In this session we will explore the first meeting with your potential disciples, walking through each aspect of your time together.

Spencer Plumlee The Reason Most Discipleship Efforts Fail

Diagnose and address the root of our discipleship failure. There are some common things many churches struggle with that can be eradicated.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM)

Craig Etheredge Jesus is our Model for Disciple-Making

Unpack the Great Commission to help show that in one of Jesus' final commands, he tells us how to make disciples. Jesus didn't simply tell his disciples to "go make disciples," he first showed them how to make disciples.

John Richardson A Life of Multiplication

Develop a mindset of multiplication in all aspects of life. Jesus changed the world through 12 men, through a life of multiplication. Making a multiplying impact in the lives of others is exactly what God designed for his followers.

Spencer Plumlee Yes, You Really Can Make Disciples in Your Church

Jesus commanded it, yet most struggle thinking its beyond their reach. Every church can make disciples if they have a clear plan and path.

SESSION 3 (12:30 PM)

Craig Etheredge Best Practices in Disciple-Making
Focus on best practices to help answer many common questions that arise while investing in others. Many times, we want to invest in those around us but aren't exactly sure what to do or how to navigate problems.

John Richardson Write It Down
Implement an intentional model for journaling through God's Word, which will prioritize knowing God. Journaling through God's Word is essential for believers to continue growth and pass along wisdom.

SESSION 4 (1:15 PM)

Craig Etheredge The Power of Investment
When investing in others we all want to make the greatest impact possible. We will discuss four critical areas that will help you have the greatest impact as you invest in others.

John Richardson How to Disciple My Family
Explore creative and practical ideas to redeem time and focus energy to make disciples within our homes. You are the primary disciple-maker in your home. Parents and guardians will be equipped to effectively disciple kids of all ages.

Craig Etheredge is a gifted communicator, author and Bible teacher. He has a Master of Divinity from Southwestern Theological Seminary and a Doctor of Ministry from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. He is the president and founder of DiscipleFirst Ministries, a contributing author to Lifeway's Disciple's Path project and currently serves as adjunct professor of discipleship at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Spencer Plumlee serves as the senior pastor of First Baptist Church Mansfield, Texas. He has a Master of Divinity and Ph.D from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He and his wife Shelley have three beautiful children - Seth, Noah and Paige. Spencer's greatest joy is seeing disciples multiplying for the glory of God.

John Richardson serves as the Discipleship Pastor at Harmony Hill Baptist Church, where his family is passionate about making disciples. He is an avid moviegoer and reader, but spends most of his free time at home as a human jungle gym for his toddler aughters, Sofia and Ren.

SESSION 1 (10:00 AM)

- Josh Allen Developing Simple but Transformational Faith Habits at Home
Discover how applying simple family adjustments can make a powerful transformational difference in the next generation.
- Chris Shirley Grandparents & Prodigals
Examine extended family relationships and learn ways grandparents can navigate through rough waters and still make a difference as disciple-makers. Grandparenting is always a challenge, but it can be particularly difficult when dealing with prodigal adult children. Strained relationships and past hurts affect every generation: grandparents, parents and grandchildren.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM)

- Josh Allen Why Family Matters Now More Than Ever
Learn how developing a biblical picture of family answers some of the most challenging cultural questions of our time. Applying current application to these ancient biblical truths matters now more than ever.
- Chris Shirley The Family Needs the Church—the Church Needs the Family
Explore how the church/family partnership can work most effectively. How do you build a true partnership between the church and families within the church? Family ministry models tend to emphasize one or the other, but a true partnership acknowledges the important roles of both in the discipleship process.

The New “Normal” in Children’s and Family Ministry in 2020Panel: Bill Emeott, Caren Crow, Larry Dan Melton, Keri MeekHosted by: Lance Crowell & Karen KennemurSESSION 3 (12:30 PM)

- Josh Allen Creating a Simple and Effective Path to Engage Families
Discover how creating a simple and effective path empowers parents to take the next best step to discipling their kids.
- Larry Dan Melton The Family Team
Help develop a partnership to equip parents to develop spiritually mature kids. As a father of four boys, I don’t have to worry about competition in my house. It just wakes up! With the struggles facing today’s families, it is vital to develop a team mentality. I’ve observed my boys play sports and have wondered why they respond so quickly to their coach yet resist my instructions.

SESSION 4 (1:15 PM)

- Josh Allen Leading Families Well Through Social Media and Technology
Be equipped to lead your family through the increasingly difficult task of navigating social media and technology. Join the discussion of benefits and dangers in modern social media culture. There is hope as you parent your children and teenagers.
- Larry Dan Melton Parenting with Gospel Goggles
Navigate difficult parenting situations through the lens of the gospel. Children know what buttons to push and, before you know it, you’ve lost all control. Walk through practical steps to capture gospel moments when children reveal the sin of their hearts.

Josh Allen is the lead pastor at Parkway Hills Baptist Church. He is passionate about discipleship in the local church. Josh is married to Jessie and they have three great kids!

Chris Shirley serves as associate dean and professor of educational ministries at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, where he teaches discipleship and family ministry courses.

Larry Dan Melton has been working with children and families for the past 19 years. His passions include equipping children to make a difference today and helping parents capture gospel moments in their own homes. Larry Dan serves as the children’s pastor at Fielder Church in Arlington. He has been married for 25 years to his wife Jagee. They have five children -four boys and a girl.

SESSION 1 (10:00 AM)

- Richard Taylor May I Ask You A Question?
Explore a simple conversational and non-intimidating approach to having spiritual conversations and sharing your faith. You will learn how to move any conversation into a spiritual direction.
- Lee Clamp Creating an Evangelistic Culture
Create a culture to include everyone in your church as a disciple-maker of lost people. Peter Drucker writes that culture eats strategy for breakfast.
- Bruno Molina Reaching Roman Catholics
This workshop will provide a brief overview of the historical and doctrinal differences between Roman Catholicism and Evangelicalism while offering suggestions how to share the gospel with Roman Catholics.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM)

- Richard Taylor Who's Your One?
Learn a simple five-step implementation strategy to be more intentional in engaging people for the sake of the gospel. This is a simple way to create an intentionally evangelistic culture both personally and within your church and ministry. These practical principles can be adopted in any context.
- Lee Clamp Changing the Scoreboard
Shift your scorecard to measure lead measures, not just lag measures. Measurements that traditionally define success are attendance and baptisms. What if you began to count actions in your control that will lead to engagement and transformation?
- Bruno Molina Sharing Christ Across Cultures & Religions
This workshop will provide strategies to share the gospel with people of other cultures and religions.

SESSION 3 (12:30 PM)

- Richard Taylor Three Circles
Acquire a simple evangelistic tool and learn ways of turning everyday conversations into gospel conversations. Every day we have multiple opportunities to point people to Jesus.
- Lee Clamp Embracing the Awkward
Gain what it takes to embrace and push through difficult moments in order to share hope. What if everyone in your church had gospel conversations with at least one person and a fourth of them came to know Jesus? You would more than double your baptisms.
- Scottie Stice Introduction to Disaster Relief (Part 1a)
Wally Lyerle
Get involved in SBTC's Disaster Relief Ministry! This two-hour training module serves as the entry point into disaster relief. Topics covered include a general orientation, an introduction to SBTC Disaster Relief ministry areas, and gathers all information and documentation for disaster relief credentialing.

SESSION 4 (1:15 PM)

- Richard Taylor Neighborhood Watch
Wrestle with questions regarding the Great Commandments. What does it mean to be a good neighbor? How can you be more intentional about the people who live in close proximity to you? Can anyone get to heaven from your neighborhood?
- Lee Clamp Engaging Through Events
Learn the skill of effectively using events to present the gospel and connect with those far from God. Throughout Scripture we see times when people were attracted to a large gathering and came to know Christ as a result. Retool events that only attract the church to include lost people and the community.
- Scottie Stice Introduction to Disaster Relief (Part 1b)
Wally Lyerle
Get involved in SBTC's Disaster Relief Ministry! This two-hour training module serves as the entry point into disaster relief. Topics covered include a general orientation, an introduction to SBTC Disaster Relief ministry areas, and gathers all information and documentation for disaster relief credentialing.

Benjamin Wright	Churches, Pastors and Political Engagement
Dante Wright	How do we walk the fine line between being salt and light and neglecting the priorities of missions and evangelism in our ministries?

Bart McDonald serves as executive director of the Southern Baptists of Texas Foundation. He holds a Masters of Divinity with biblical languages from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and a BBA in finance from Texas A&M University. Prior to a calling to ministry, he had a successful career in banking, finance and consulting. Bart served as senior pastor at Tate Springs Baptist Church in Arlington.

Terry Jeffries has served churches in Missouri and Texas over the past 35 years in the areas of education and administration. Most recently he served as the executive pastor of Tate Springs Baptist Church in Arlington, Texas. Terry also has significant business experience, having served as the president of two corporations for more than 25 years.

Barry Ford serves as the minister to young married adults and men’s outreach at First Baptist Dallas. Barry is passionate about family and marriage ministry and about creating creative and contagious environments to connect adults to the local church. He and his wife, Ellen, have been married for 19 years and are the proud parents of 13-year-old twins, Jake and Emma.

Benjamin Wright grew up in a believing family and made a profession of faith as a young child, but really only understood the gospel and trusted Christ much later. He spent the next 14 years working in Christian educational organizations, studying at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and training in a pastoral apprenticeship. In 2009 he joined the staff of High Pointe Baptist Church in Austin as an associate pastor. After several years there, High Pointe commissioned him to pastor its Cedar Park church plant. Ben and his wife, Meredith, have four sons and one daughter.

Dante Wright has pastored Sweet Home Baptist Church, “The Pinnacle of Praise,” in Round Rock since 2005. During his tenure, he has seen that church grow from 60 members to around 2,000. He is a former collegiate football player and coach, and remains an avid sports fan. But serving his church is his passion. A native of Dallas, Dr. Wright holds degrees from Southeast Missouri State, Criswell College, Liberty University and Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is additionally completing a Ph.D dissertation with Midwestern. He has also taught at several colleges and universities. Dante and his wife, Tracy, have five children.

Mike Landry has served as pastor of churches in Louisiana and Texas, a church planter in Hawaii and he and his wife Connie served as missionaries in Romania. He currently serves as a consultant in Church Revitalization with the SBTC.

Michael Wilder serves as a professor of leadership and educational ministries at Southwestern Seminary and dean of the Terry School of Educational Ministries. His experience includes more than 30 years of pastoral ministry and church leadership along with 18 years of teaching and administration in Christian Higher Education settings. He is the co-author of The God Who Goes Before You: Pastoral Leadership as Christ-Centered Followership.

John Bernard connects visitors and new members to Sunday School, membership, and ministry. When he's not spending time with his wife, Cheryl, their three daughters, or six grandchildren, John is likely officiating a local sports event or relaxing on a beach somewhere.

Leon Moore serves as ministry specialist in Church Revitalization with the Southern Baptists of Texas Convention. He received his D.Min. in Pastoral Leadership from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and M.A. from Dallas Theological Seminary. He is a certified church administrator (CCA) and certified church consultant. He is married to Joyce Moore and they are the proud parents of two daughters. Leon greatest joy is promoting the Great Commission and teaching from John 8:32.

Gary Ledbetter has been the communications director for SBTC since 2001. Before that he was in the administration at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary after serving another state convention and several churches. He is a graduate of Criswell College, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Gary and his wife, Tammi, are members of Inglewood Baptist Church in Grand Prairie and have three grown children and five grandchildren.

Mike Gurley works for Critical Incident Management (security) Plan that aides in development, training and application for schools, churches and corporations. This venture is based on a broad spectrum of experience in law enforcement, major event logistics, dignitary protection and strategic security planning. Through threat assessment and plan development, workable solutions can be developed to address the needs of your organization.

SESSION 1 (10:00 AM)

- Kay Schmidt The Joy of Serving Young Readers
Learn ways to serve young readers and what to consider when building your collection. What joy comes to the faces of children when they discover books! As librarians, we can enjoy each level young readers grow through.
- Glenn McEowen Manage Your Library on an iPad
Can we really run our libraries on portable devices? This class will focus on web-based library systems. We will dig into the possibilities and the problems that technology brings.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM)

- Kay Schmidt Managing a Great Non-Fiction Collection
Identify important factors in making our non-fiction section a great, biblically grounded resource for our churches. Many libraries may find their fiction has more circulation than non-fiction. We cannot, however, neglect our non-fiction, but rather enhance the quality of this all-important part of our collection.
- Genny Holmes Dazzling Displays: Creative Ideas to Promote Library Resources
Melissa Davis Prepare eye-catching presentations to showcase library resources. Feeling like you use the same old ideas over and over? Discover some fresh and exciting ways to create large-scale displays in your window or promotion area. Topics covered will include: holidays, thematic ideas, special events and sermon series.

Lunch Panel

11:30 AM-12:30 PM

Improving our First Impressions to Guests

Panel: John Bernard, Harvey Letcher & Carter Shotwell
Hosted by: Mark Yoakum

SESSION 3 (12:30 PM)

- Anne McEowen All About Fiction
Make the best purchasing decisions and get good recommendations. So many books! So little time! ...and little budgets! We will also have a list of new fiction!
- Genny Holmes "Wow" Library: Creating a Warm & Welcoming Space for Patrons
Melissa Davis Once patrons enter the library, how do we manage the space so they want to stay? Spice up your library with some fun ideas to creatively use varied spaces to both promote books and resources. Provide a welcoming space where your patrons will want to browse and even linger. And always leave with a book!

SESSION 4 (1:15 PM)

- Glenn McEowen Easy Cataloging
Examine the good and not-so-good aspects of online cataloging. Is there an easier way to catalog a title before we resort to (ugh!) cataloging?
- Genny Holmes Building & Maintaining Creative Resources for Library Promotion
Melissa Davis Develop a "stash" of resources for both no budget and low budget libraries. What are the items you should keep on hand to help create simple displays? What items should be on your "wish list?" What are our top ten "must haves" to keep always rotating promotions fresh? Come join us to find out!

Kay Schmidt has been married to Paul for 51 years, is a mother of four and grandmother of three. She has been the library director at North Richland Hills Baptist Church for 21 years and served earlier as a preschool Sunday School teacher for 25 years. She is a member of the Texas Library Association and Friends of the North Richland Hills Public Library.

Genny Holmes has served as a volunteer in Wedgwood Baptist's library for "a really long time." Creating library displays is only one of her talents. She is also the church pianist and, with her husband of 31 years, has served throughout the church in many capacities. After raising three amazing daughters she can often be found reading, scrapbooking, quilting or decorating cookies.

Glenn McEowen while assisting his wife, Anne, at Wedgwood Baptist, Fort Worth, Glenn manages the day-to-day operations of Library Concepts. Previously, he served for 29-years at the Southern Baptist Radio and TV Commission.

Anne McEowen has been the library director at Wedgwood Baptist, Fort Worth since 1978. Her library was one of the first to have an ebooks ministry. In her spare time, she enjoys scrapbooking the life events of her 4 grandchildren.

Melissa Davis is a lover of words and has had a book in her hand since she could hold one. She served in the worship ministry of Wedgwood Baptist. She also volunteers in the library where she can use her "creative juices" to add visual impact to its displays. She has been married for 33 years and when not reading, she is most likely making something fun for her grandbabies or baking something.

This is Missions 101. What do missionaries do? Come learn the basics and how your church's partnership helps to advance the work in the field.

Kristen Morgan has a master's degree in special education with 11 years of teaching and diagnostician experience. She has a passion for working with children and families with special needs. Kristen has served in the preschool/children's ministry for over twelve years. She was a minister to special needs at First Baptist Forney for four years and now serves as the special needs consultant with SBTC.

Nancy Turner is a seasoned pastor's wife, mother of three adult married children and grandmother of eight. She is a conference speaker, teaches an adult women's Sunday school class and serves as an adviser for several ministries within her church. Her desire is to inspire women to draw nearer to God by speaking and teaching his word with clarity. Dr. Turner graduated from Dallas Theological Seminary with a ThM (New Testament Studies) and PhD (family ministry major and women's ministry minor) from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has a Bachelor of Science (Accounting) from the University of Central Oklahoma. Dr. Turner serves as an Adjunct Professor at Criswell College.

Richard Taylor serves as the SBTC Personal Evangelism & Fellowships associate. Before coming to the SBTC, he most recently served as the director of evangelism and ministry for the Baptist Convention of New York. He received educational training from Texas A & I University, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and over 20 years of service in various ministry and denominational positions.

Caleb Turner serves as the equipping pastor for the Mesquite Friendship Baptist Church. He has a master's degree in biblical studies from Moody Bible Institute, and is currently pursuing his Doctor of Ministry in Apologetics from Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is married to his high school sweetheart, Tamera, and they are raising three active boys.

Barry Calhoun serves as a church mobilizer for the International Mission Board and missions director at his local church, North Garland Baptist Fellowship. Previously, he served as the mobilization director & church planting associate for the Southern Baptists of Texas Convention for 12 years. He is a graduate of the Alabama College of Technology, Southern Bible Institute, Dallas Baptist University and Criswell College where he received an M.A. in Christian leadership & education. Barry has also studied at Oxford University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Barry and his wife, Seneca, have been blessed with three children and one grandson.

SESSION 1 (10:00 AM)

- Ken Tan Character: Understanding Who We Are in Christ & Leading Like Christ
Develop into a leader based on the model of Jesus. We will focus on the character of a leader, which is transformative to leadership. It will equip you as a leader to impact your own spheres of influence. The leadership philosophy of this training is simple: Follow Jesus, the leader.
- Grace Paick How to Teach a Baby Dedication Class (Taught in Korean)
This session proposes some essential contents and procedures for a baby dedication class.
- June Lee Ways Children Learn & Enjoy Learning (Taught in Korean)
All children are made in the image of God, but each child is also unique and different in many ways. Explore ways children learn and enjoy.

SESSION 2 (10:45 AM)

- Ken Tan Capacity: The Ability to Perform at the Most Effective Level
Discover and understand who you are as a leader and how to develop leaders who lead a well-balanced life and ministry. You can't be spiritually mature while remaining emotionally immature.
- Grace Paick How to Build a Strong Ministry Team (Taught in Korean)
Beat the misconceptions about preschool volunteers and help develop a diverse and dedicated team
- June Lee Building the Biblical Foundation for Children (Taught in Korean)
