SBTC Disaster Relief Ready to Respond as Storm Approaches Texas Coast
Volunteer Teams on Alert Status as Tropical Storm Expected to Land this Weekend

Grapevine, TX — July 23, 2020 — Volunteers with the Southern Baptists of Texas Convention Disaster Relief (SBTC Disaster Relief) are preparing to serve as a tropical storm is expected to hit the Texas Gulf Coast this weekend.

"Our volunteer teams from across the state are on alert status for this storm," said SBTC DR Director Scottie Stice. "We are in communication with state and national partners, and we are ready to help any way we can."

The ministry has Quick Response Feeding Units at the ready, according to Stice, in addition to teams being ready to serve victims by cleaning out flooded homes, removing fallen trees and much more.
