

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS OF TEXAS CONVENTION

TEXAS ETHICS

& RELIGIOUS LIBERTY COMMITTEE

Who is the TERLC?

The Texas Ethics and Religious Liberty Committee (TERLC) represents the over 2,800 churches of the Southern Baptists of Texas Convention.

What does the TERLC do?

The TERLC engages in public policy to mobilize churches toward prayer and active involvement in the legislative process.

What is the SBTC?

Established in 1998, we are a convention of over 2,800 autonomous Southern Baptist churches across Texas. We also cooperate with other state conventions across the nation that together represent over 46,800 local churches.

TERLC Priorities

Pause and pray with us for these issues:

- Religious Liberty
- Sanctity of Life
- Orphan Care
- Gender Identity
- Marriage, Family, and Parental Rights
- Exploitation and Violence
- Economic Principles and Gambling

Sign-up to receive regular updates.

sbtexas.com/terlc

